NORWOOD PEOPLE HEAR ABOUT GAS

Large Attendance at the Third Meeting to Discuss Proposed Agreement

The gas question attracted a larger audience than last time at the third meeting. When the meeting took place, the speaker, Mr. J. H. McPherson, who is in charge of the gas supply, said that the gas supply was fairly well off and that considerable interest was manifested in the address of the different speakers. The meeting last night, however, did not differ materially from the previous ones, in that the two parties are still paying more attention to personal differences than they are to enlightening the laymen on the terms of the proposed agreement with the National Alberta Natural Gas and Development Company, limited, who are seeking a franchise for the supply of gas to the city, or to explaining to the people just what the agreement means.

The first speaker was J. H. McPherson, who is in charge of the gas supply, and he covered practically the same ground he has gone over at the two previous meetings. His main contention is that in the agreement to pay for the gas is mentioned from the fact that the company is going to secure the right to supply the gas to the city. He stated that the agreement in which it is stipulated that the city should pay for the gas is not a guarantee that for a long time there will be 27 cents a thousand cubic feet of gas. He stated that the price of gas is not a guarantee that for a long time there will be 27 cents a thousand cubic feet of gas. He stated that the price of gas is not a guarantee that for a long time there will be 27 cents a thousand cubic feet of gas.

Mr. McPherson explained that if the company did not carry out their part of the agreement in connection with the commencement of work, they were liable to a fine of $100 a day for every day in default. He said that the company was not prepared to supply gas to the city for as long as they were liable to a fine of $100 a day. He said that the company was not prepared to supply gas to the city for as long as they were liable to a fine of $100 a day.

Colossal Sacrifice Yielded Them Nothing But a Few Ruined Farms

Absolute Disregard of Waste of Life Displayed in Attack With Gas Northeast of Ypres Monday—Enemy Advancing in Their Old Style Formation Moved Down.

North of France, May 26, via London.—The British artillery and machine guns, assisted by French artillery, let loose a tornado of lead among them, moving them down. But with absolute disregard of the slaughter the Germans continued to form into columns and they started to advance in their old-style formation. Six times in succession their columns went forward to utter annihilation. All this colossal sacrifice yielded them nothing except a few ruined farms.

Saved From Unlucky Sacrifice. Meanwhile to prevent the French and Belgians, on the British left, from advancing and causing a diversion, the Germans turned upon the line about the same time as the British fire, of which the British had been the first recipients. It is reported that French and Belgians did not suffer greatly in either loss of ground or men.

Relatively slight as these German successes are, the British could have prevented them not only at the cost of a sacrifice of life equal to that to which the Germans deliberately exposed themselves. That, however, is not the allies' policy, which is rather to allow the enemy to bleed himself, such carnage and reserve their own human material for the hour of the forthcoming advance.

A terrific bombardment was opened in the course of the night. It proved a continuous hail of shells that showed clearly that the Germans intended to advance at all cost by sheer weight. Under this appalling avalanche of steel and high explosive the British hero themselves wonderfully, though suffering heavy losses. They steadily awaited the onrushes that were to follow.

Suddenly, in the moonlight, the Germans started up one of their trenches and began to form for the attack.

CROP PROSPECTS NEVER BRIGHTER

Spring Wheat up Six Inches—Big Increase in Acreage Reported

By Bulletin Leased Wire. OMAHA, May 27.—With spring wheat up well over six inches, with plenty of moisture in the ground practically all over the province and with an average increase of from 25 to 40 per cent in acreage, the present outlook for the crops of Alberta this season has never been excellent, according to a comprehensive report just issued by the Canadian Credit Mortgage Association, limited, compiled from reports of agents in every part of the territory.

It is also evident from the report that despite the big increase in acreage, wheat farming is not by any means being abandoned, but is increasing in the same old-fashioned way. Summer following in also being done very early and with the standard of cultivation is undoubtedly higher than in previous years.

Mr. Harry Lambell, 202 Queen avenue, left yesterday on a two-month visit to Gravelly, Wisconsin.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. MONTREAL, May 27.—During a terrific storm tonight in celebration of Italy's declaration of war, several thousand Italians made a raid on the office of the Montreal Star.

The Nationalist, amidst the plate glass windows in the front of the building, and attempted to force an entrance from the rear. A serious damage was done to the interior, mounted pipes and furniture which had been assigned to follow the battle, assisted by strong reinforcements drove the angry patriots away, making three arrests.

The cause of the Italian's wrath against Mr. Bourassa and his paper was an article published reflecting on Italy's entrance into the war as a "swish ground."

His words infuriated the demonstrators. Throughout the inside they continually shouted, "Down Bourassa" and at its conclusion the house on Le Devoir was looted.
